FOOD LABS

Food labs are a privilege ONE bad choice and you will lose your privilege for 2 weeks.

Food labs are worth 30 points toward your grade.

- 10 points for completing your assigned job.
- 10 points for wearing an apron, washing hands and tying hair back.
- 10 points for sampling the food.

MISSING CLASS= FOODS LABS AT HOME

If you're Absent during a FOODS LAB it must be made up at home and return the lab make-up sheet with parent signature.

- Lab make-up sheets are located in the back of the recipe book.
- The lab must be made-up within two weeks.
- If you're absent because of a school related activity you will be excused from the foods lab but NOT the school work (example: notes, worksheets and lab evaluations)

If you're tardy for class you will have an automatic 5 point deduction from your 30 points.

Any missed days will result in missed notes.

It is your students' responsibility to copy those notes from my website.

RECIPE BOOKS:

- Keep track of your recipe book the first one is free, the second one $1.00.
- After each lab you must complete the lab evaluation.
- Lab evaluations = big points for your grade and improved test scores!!
